

Sopra Steria Accelerates the Transformation of Its Business Model

Paris, October 24, 2024 – Sopra Steria today announced the creation of a Group Operations Department. Dominique Lapère, previously Executive Industrial Director, has been appointed Chief Operating Officer (COO) reporting to Cyril Malargé, CEO of Sopra Steria. This new department is responsible for ensuring the best execution of operations and improving performance, notably by updating and standardising the Group's operational model. This new business model will be based on the Group's industry verticals as well as pooled, horizontal technological centres of excellence.

As a reminder, Sopra Steria will hold a Capital Market Day on December 12. This will be an opportunity to review the Group's medium-term project.
